Governance and Performance Management System

Monk Hesleden Parish Council operates under rules set out in Legislation, Standing Orders and Financial Regulations. Service standards are set out in local policies and associated schedules. Detailed operating procedures to implement Council instructions have been produced and approved by council.

All employees have a contract of employment and clear job descriptions that sets out what is expected. The full council has for managing performance and governance as well as to review monitoring information and reports.

- All expenditure is checked by full council and bank reconciliations are approved each month.
- The Council employs an Internal Auditor to check the soundness of internal control. Findings are reported to Council and all recommendations are immediately implemented.
- Overall performance is reported yearly in the Annual Report which is presented by the Chairman at the Annual Parish Meeting.
